

THE HOKIE BUCKET LIST

18 72

- 1. Jump to “Enter Sandman” at a home football game.
- 2. Run through the tunnel in Lane Stadium and touch the Hokie Stone for good luck.
- 3. Participate in Virginia Tech’s Relay for Life, the largest collegiate Relay for Life in the world!
- 4. Visit the April 16th Memorial and/or attend an April 16th Remembrance event.
- 5. Eat at the Homeplace in Catawba.
- 6. Watch a sunset from the War Memorial Pylons.
- 7. Learn the words to the Old Hokie cheer.
- 8. Practice our school motto, Ut Prosim (That I May Serve) by participating in a service program, such as The Big Event, and contribute to your senior class gift campaign.
- 9. Learn the words to the VT Alma Mater.
- 10. Hike the Cascades – even better when the Cascades are frozen!
- 11. Experience all four seasons of Blacksburg on the Drillfield – sometimes in the same week!
- 12. Get a picture with the HokieBird.
- 13. Wear the Tradition – order your class ring!
- 14. Learn the words to Tech Triumph, the Virginia Tech fight song.
- 15. Memorize the names of the War Memorial pylons: Brotherhood, Honor, Leadership, Sacrifice, Service, Loyalty, Duty, and Ut Prosim.
- 16. Visit the Virginia Tech museum at the Holtzman Alumni Center.
- 17. Enjoy a picnic at the Duckpond or Gazebo, and see Virginia Tech’s oldest building, Solitude.
- 18. Celebrate a big win in Lane Stadium with 66,233 of your closest friends!

- 19. High-five the HokieBird.
- 20. Go to at least one away football game.
- 21. Cheer with the Cassell Guard at a home basketball game.
- 22. Attend an SAA-sponsored Spirit Rally.
- 23. Learn how to gobble like a true Hokie.
- 24. Take a picture of the place that means the most to you on campus.
- 25. Attend a Hokie sporting event, other than football or basketball.
- 26. Welcome new Hokies by participating in Hokie Helpers, Hokie Hi Picnic, Orientation, Gobblerfest, or Hokie Camp.
- 27. Attend the annual Midwinters Dance, a traditional event for the entire university community held in Squires Student Center.
- 28. Hike to McAfee’s Knob and get your picture taken on the edge. Avoid the crowds - go on a weekday!
- 29. Hike Dragon’s Tooth. Bring enough water and practice Leave No Trace on the trail.
- 30. Help someone in need and participate in Actively Caring for People.
- 31. Sing karaoke at “TOTS Tuesday”.
- 32. Meet the university president. (Get a selfie with Dr. Sands!)
- 33. Attend a concert in Burruss Hall.
- 34. Play an intramural sport.
- 35. Eat a turkey leg at a home football game.

THE ESSENTIAL 18

- 36. Attend your class's Ring Premiere and watch the fireworks on the Drillfield!
- 37. Experience the first snow of the year on the Drillfield.
- 38. Attend a Virginia Tech Homecoming week event.
- 39. Go tubing or paddling down the New River.
- 40. Attend Ring Dance and watch the fireworks on the Drillfield!
- 41. Eat lobster at West End or hibachi at Turner Place.
- 42. Go to a holiday dinner at D2.
- 43. Eat Sunday Brunch at West End or D2.
- 44. Support Downtown Blacksburg and eat at PK's, The Cellar, and/or Cabo Fish Taco.
- 45. Eat a gyro at Souvlaki.
- 46. Eat brunch at Gillie's.
- 47. Visit the Farmer's Market in Downtown Blacksburg on Wednesdays or Saturdays.
- 48. Get a parking ticket from Virginia Tech Parking Services (Let's face it: it's inevitable)
- 49. Find all the gargoyles on campus. (Hint: there are 15!)
- 50. Study in Torgersen Bridge or at the Math Empo.
- 51. Act out the Principles of Community, embrace Aspirations of Student Learning, and practice Hokies Respect.
- 52. Get a picture with a painted HokieBird around Blacksburg. (Hint: there are 69 Gobble de Art statues!)
- 53. Wear the Orange and Maroon Hokie Effect shirts to the corresponding football games.
- 54. Wear the HokieZone T-shirt with Hokie pride.
- 55. Walk, run, or bike down the Huckleberry Trail.
- 56. Take a class that seems interesting, even if it has nothing to do with your major! (Highly suggest John Boyer's World Regions class)
- 57. Ride on the Blacksburg Transit's Ring Bus.
- 58. Go to the Merryman Athletic Facility and visit the football museum.
- 59. Play a game of pool or go bowling in the BreakZONE.
- 60. Rent a canoe or other equipment from Venture Out for an outdoor adventure!
- 61. Take an exercise class at War Memorial or McComas Hall. (Hint: They have free group classes the first week of each semester)
- 62. Watch a movie at The Lyric Theatre. Don't forget, free popcorn on Mondays!
- 63. Visit Perspectives Gallery in Squires to view the newest art exhibit.
- 64. Visit Mountain Lake to hike the trails and do the self-guided tour of the Dirty Dancing movie locations at the hotel and grounds.
- 65. Watch a movie at the Starlite Drive-In Theater in Christiansburg.
- 66. Experience a cultural event on campus, such as the International Street Fair, a Martin Luther King Jr. event, Dwali, etc.
- 67. Enjoy a Virginia Slice from Benny's!
- 68. Get a picture with the biggest VT on campus. (Hint: It's on Upper Quad!)
- 69. Enjoy donuts from Carol Lee Donut Shop.
- 70. Participate in a fraternity or sorority philanthropy event.
- 71. Watch a play put on by the School of Performing Arts and Cinema or attend a performance at the Moss Arts Center.
- 72. GRADUATE!

See the Hokie Bucket List online and start your own Bucket List account, visit:
hokiebucketlist.alumni.vt.edu

Sponsored by Student Alumni Associates of Virginia Tech

Last revised July 6, 2018