

THE HOKIE BUCKET LIST

18  72

- 1. Jump to “Enter Sandman” at a home football game.
 - 2. Pass through the tunnel in Lane Stadium and touch the Hokie Stone for good luck.
 - 3. Participate in Virginia Tech’s Relay for Life, the largest collegiate Relay for Life in the world!
 - 4. Visit the April 16 Memorial and attend an April 16 Remembrance event.
 - 5. Wear the Tradition - order your class ring!
 - 6. Sit on the edge of the War Memorial Pylons and watch the sunset.
 - 7. Practice our school motto, Ut Prosim (That I May Serve), by participating in The Big Event.
 - 8. Memorize the values of the eight Pylons at the War Memorial: Brotherhood, Honor, Leadership, Sacrifice, Service, Loyalty, Duty, and Ut Prosim.
 - 9. Take a picture of the place that means the most to you on campus.
 - 10. Give back to Virginia Tech by participating in Giving Day and ImpactWeek events, such as Thank-A-Donor Day.
 - 11. Get a picture with the biggest VT on campus. Hint: it’s on the Upper Quad!
 - 12. Experience all four seasons of Blacksburg on the Drillfield - sometimes in the same week!
 - 13. High-five the HokieBird and get a picture!
 - 14. Learn the words to the Virginia Tech Alma Mater, the Old Hokie Cheer, and Tech Triumph.
 - 15. Find all the gargoyles on campus. Hint: there are 15!
 - 16. Leave your impact by making your Senior Class Gift donation before you graduate!
 - 17. Enjoy a picnic at the Duckpond or Gazebo and see Virginia Tech’s oldest building, Solitude.
 - 18. Celebrate a big win in Lane Stadium with 66,233 of your closest friends!
-
- 19. Grab a meal with your favorite professor using the faculty dining program.
 - 20. Go to at least one away football game.
 - 21. Cheer with the Cassell Guard at a home basketball game.
 - 22. Attend an SAA-sponsored spirit rally.
 - 23. Visit Gobblers Rest, where the presidential pardoned turkeys live and learn how to gobble like a true Hokie!
 - 24. Order chicken parmesan from Owen’s Hall or grab a meal of General Tso’s.
 - 25. Attend a Hokie sporting event other than football or men’s basketball.
 - 26. Welcome new Hokies by participating in Hokie Helpers, Orientation, or Welcome Week activities, such as Hokie Hi Picnic or Gobblerfest.
 - 27. Join at least one on-campus organization that piques your interest.
 - 28. Pet Growley II - the canine ambassador for the Corps of Cadets.
 - 29. Visit the Virginia Tech museum at the Holtzman Alumni Center.
 - 30. Visit the Cascades – even better when the Cascades are frozen!
 - 31. Take a photo in front of the VT flag at TOTS.
 - 32. Meet the university President Tim Sands!
 - 33. Attend a Black Student Alliance or Virginia Tech Union sponsored concert in Burruss Hall.
 - 34. Participate in an intramural sport.

THE ESSENTIAL 18

- 35. Eat a turkey leg at a home football game.
- 36. Attend your class Ring Premiere.
- 37. Experience the first snow of the year on the Drillfield.
- 38. Attend a Virginia Tech Homecoming week event and vote for your favorite candidates.
- 39. Go tubing or paddling down the New River.
- 40. Attend Ring Dance and watch the fireworks on the Drillfield.
- 41. Grab a late-night snack at DX or a Milkshake from Deets.
- 42. Go to a holiday dinner at D2.
- 43. Eat Sunday brunch at West End or D2.
- 44. Support Downtown Blacksburg and eat at places like PK's, The Cellar, Cabo Fish Taco, Souvlaki, Gillie's, Joe's Diner, or Green's Grill and Sushi Bar.
- 45. Participate in the 3.2 for 32 Remembrance Run in April.
- 46. Cheer on Ranger Company and touch the game ball before Homecoming.
- 47. Attend a Downtown Blacksburg sponsored event, such as the Farmer's Market, Steppin' Out, or the Holiday Parade.
- 48. Get a parking ticket from Virginia Tech Parking Services. (Let's face it: it's inevitable.)
- 49. Visit the Hahn Horticulture Garden and bring a hammock if you have one!
- 50. Hike McAfee's Knob with your friends-- make sure to carpool!
- 51. Study in Torgersen Bridge or in Squires.
- 52. Gather a team together and participate in the VT Hunt---one of the largest student-run scavenger hunts in the U.S.!
- 53. Attend a guest speaker event on campus and learn something new.
- 54. Wear the Orange and Maroon Hokie Effect shirts to the corresponding football and basketball games.
- 55. Explore the area's local parks, such as the Huckleberry Trail, Heritage Park, Pandapas Pond, Deerfield Trail, or Claytor Lake.
- 56. Take a class that seems interesting, even if it has nothing to do with your major!
- 57. Ride on Blacksburg Transit's Ring Bus.
- 58. Visit the Virginia Tech Football Museum at the Merryman Athletic Facility.
- 59. Play a game of pool or go bowling in the BreakZONE.
- 60. Rent a bike or other equipment from Venture Out, complete their Challenge Course, or climb their bouldering wall.
- 61. Take an exercise class at McComas Hall. (There are free group classes during the first week of the semester.)
- 62. Watch a movie at the Lyric Theatre. Free popcorn on Mondays!
- 63. Visit Perspectives Gallery in Squires to view the newest art exhibit.
- 64. Visit Mountain Lake and do the self-guided tour of the Dirty Dancing movie locations at the hotel, and hike Bald Knob.
- 65. Watch a movie at the Starlite Drive-In Theater in Christiansburg.
- 66. Experience an Intercultural Engagement Center or cultural event on campus, such as the Native at VT Spring Powwow, the International Street Fair, Diwali, etc.
- 67. Enjoy a late-night Virginia Slice from Benny's!
- 68. Enjoy donuts from Carol Lee Donut Shop.
- 69. Get a picture with a painted HokieBird around Blacksburg. Hint: there are 69 Gobble de Art statues!
- 70. Participate in any fraternity or sorority philanthropy event. (Panhellenic, IFC, UCFS, NPHC, etc.)
- 71. Attend a play put on by the School of Performing Arts and Cinema or attend a performance at the Moss Arts Center.
- 72. GRADUATE!

See the Hokie Bucket List online and start your own Bucket List account, visit:
hokiebucketlist.alumni.vt.edu

Sponsored by Student Alumni Associates of Virginia Tech

Last revised July 10, 2019